MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: FA 57 Attendance at Intermediate Level Education and Advanced Operations and Warfighting Course

1. Reference 14 Nov 02 Decision Brief to CSA, Subject: Simulation Operations Officer Development.
2. During the briefing the CSA directed that the FA 57 Officer attend the Intermediate Level Education (ILE) Common Core Phase, the Advanced Operations and Warfighting Course (AOWC), and a functional FA 57 Simulation Operations Course. The FA 57 Officers will attend AOWC when the Army implements ILE.
3. The Simulation Operations Officer (FA 57) officer is adept at military operations as well as simulations. During their initial assignment, after AOWC, the FA 57 officer will be assigned to the tactical army within G3 sections of the Corps and Division headquarters, and echelons above division organizations in brigade S3 sections. Their mission will entail integrating simulations into training programs and military operations as well as working with joint warfighting organizations. To adequately prepare FA 57 officers for these operator level assignments attendance at AOWC is required in addition to their functional area education.
4. The Simulation Operations Officer development process as directed by the CSA will prepare the FA 57 officer for their initial performance on the Brigade, Division and Corps S3/G3 Staffs.
